

CHARLES KING

- > UX/UI Designer
- > Front-End Developer

SUMMARY

Full-stack web developer specializing in UX/UI design. Detail-oriented and driven. Works well with others, both in team and leadership positions. My goal is to create a clear and effective communications channel between organizations and their target audiences, whether through a website, app, structured media posts through third-parties, or all three. Comprehensive and system-based approach to problem solving.
